

Com. Sub. for H. B. 3225, Expanding the definition of harassment, intimidation or bullying. On motion of Delegate Boggs, the bill was taken up for immediate consideration.

The following Senate amendments were reported by the Clerk:

On page five, section three, line thirty, by striking out the word "and".

On page five, section three, line thirty-three, after the word "code", by changing the period to a semicolon and inserting the word "and".

On page five, section three, after line thirty-three, by inserting a new subdivision, designated subdivision (11), to read as follows:

"(11) A requirement that each county board shall input into the uniform integrated regional computer information system (commonly known as the West Virginia Education Information System) described in section twenty-six, article two of this chapter, and compile an annual report regarding the means of harassment, intimidation or bullying that have been reported to them, and the reasons therefor, if known. The West Virginia Department of Education shall compile the information and report it annually beginning July 1, 2012, to the Legislative Oversight Committee on Education Accountability."

And,

By amending the title of the bill to read as follows:

Com. Sub. for H. B. 3225 - "A Bill to amend and reenact §18-2C-2 and §18-2C-3 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, all relating to harassment, intimidation or bullying of students; expanding the definition of harassment, intimidation or bullying; expanding the areas where harassment, intimidation and bullying are prohibited to include school buses and school bus stops; requiring county board and West Virginia Department of Education policies regarding harassment, intimidation or bullying; and establishing reporting requirements."

On motion of Delegate Boggs, the House of Delegates concurred in the Senate amendments.

The bill, as amended by the Senate, was then put upon its passage.
